

Canadian College and University Fairs (CCUF)
International Education Fair
2022 Contest
Terms and Conditions

The Canadian College and University Fair (CCUF) International Education Fair $1,500 Cash Prize 2022 is open to any student aged 16 years or older who registers, attends and engages with at least one exhibitor at the CCUF International Education Fair on January 19, 2022.

Contest Rules

No purchase necessary.

To participate in the Contest, do the following:

- Register for free admission to the fair at <https://ccuf.ca/ccuf-international-education-fair> and while attending the event (January 19, 2022) request information from one or more exhibitor.
- Be a student who is currently attending or planning to attend a school.
- Each event registrant will receive a login for the virtual fair platform closer to the date of the event. They will use this login to access the fair, outlined above. The system will track who has logged in during that time.
- Accumulate points through the gamification module by attending presentations, visiting booths, and asking questions. The grand prize will be given to the student participant with the highest point count at the end of the fair. If this total is a tie, a recipient will be randomly selected from among the top scorers.

Prizing – The contest prize is for $1,500.00 CAD.

Any costs associated with receiving the prizing are the responsibility of the winner. CCUF will not be responsible or liable for any possible damages or injuries that may occur as a result of the use of a Prize. To be declared a winner, the selected entrant will be required to sign a release, waiver of liability and indemnity.

Odds of winning will depend on the number of eligible participants who complete their registration and attend the online event on one of the two days. Entries will not be eligible if the registrant has not attended in accordance with these Contest Rules.

Draw – A random draw by a representative of CCUF shall be made from all entries received and will take place at approximately 12:00 pm on January 31, 2022. Selected entrants will be contacted by email at the email address indicated on their registration form.

If the selected entrant cannot be reached within five (5) business days following the first attempt of contact, incorrectly answers the skill-testing question, declines the prize, or fails to return a Release of Liability as specified below, CCUF reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to select another entrant or to cancel the prize.

To be declared a winner, selected entrants must first correctly answer, unaided, a time-limited, mathematical skill-testing question and must also sign a Declaration of Compliance with the Contest Rules and a full Liability and Publicity Release. In the event the selected entrant is a minor, the entrant's parent or legal guardian will be deemed to be the entrant who must meet all contest eligibility requirements and who may accept the prize on behalf of the minor. Contest judges' rulings are final and without appeal in all matters related to the promotion and the awarding of prizes.

Prize must be accepted as awarded. No substitutions, alterations, cash equivalents or redemptions will be made. Prizes may not be transferred or assigned except if expressly consented to by CCUF. Where applicable, a Contest winner is responsible for all taxes, surcharges and fees associated with receipt or use of the Prize. Any charges and/or expenses not specifically mentioned as included in the Prize are the responsibility of the winner. CCUF does not assume any liability for lost, damaged or misdirected Contest Entries or Prizes. Other restrictions may apply.

By entering this contest, entrants consent to the use of their entry, name, city of residence and/or any photograph of or that may be taken in publicity carried out by CCUF, their affiliates, and/or its advertising agencies, without further notice or compensation.

The contest is subject to all applicable federal, provincial and municipal laws and regulations. Not open to residents of Quebec.

All entries that are incomplete, illegible, damaged, irregular, have been submitted through illicit means, or do not conform to or satisfy any condition of the rules may be disqualified by CCUF. CCUF takes no responsibility for lost, stolen, delayed, damaged, misdirected, late or destroyed entries, or for typographical or other production errors. CCUF is not responsible for any errors or omissions in printing or advertising this contest. All entries become the property of CCUF and will not be returned.
